The physical evidence was the effect the encounter had on the aircraft. While flying over Virginia we encountered a sphere like object. It affected the instruments of the aircraft namely everything magnetic. We attempted to check if there was radar data of the encounter but have come up with nothing in that regard. My Father and myself both experienced the same thing. As we flew we had an sphere like craft slow match our speed 30 ft off our wing then shoot off at a speed that was incredibly fast. As the craft closed on us it caused the instruments to malfunction. Also the aircraft on the ground had residual static charge to it. We reported the incident to mufon and it has been investigated by a number of other people. Around November of last year CNN contacted us to talk about it but we declined to talk to them because we felt that they had a tendency to make a joke out of the people involved in such encounters. After seeing your work it seemed your group would be the best ones to reach out to since you seem to be more open minded about representing the cases surrounding these events.

P.S. The attachment will give you the exact location of this incident.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank you for reaching out to us.

Dr. Greer is interested in possibly working with you.

He asked me to ask you what kind of evidence do you have regarding this event.

Many thanks.
