>Radio Host [REDACTED] BLACKMAILED by Clinton Operatives

> By [REDACTED] Associated Press Writer

> WASHINGTON (AP) -- Sources close to the Clinton White House are >denying a report that late-night radio host Art Bell has been >blackmailed by a group close to the president.

> The report asserts that [REDACTED] a successful radio talk show host >with a late-night audience of 20 Million listeners, was black-mailed in >order to secure commentary favorable to Clinton.

> Sources said that materials connecting [REDACTED] and his cousin, new-age
>guru [REDACTED] were used to threaten [REDACTED]

> [REDACTED] known as "RAMA" to a cult following, was deceased earlier this >year in an apparent suicide. The incident remains under investigation.

> Of note in the report was [REDACTED] rapid turnaround in his position >regarding the Clinton issue. In his August 17th show, Bell called for >Clinton's resignation following the President's now infamous apology.
>Bell now supports the President.

>  was reportedly so intimidated by the initial threat that he
