

[REDACTED]

---

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, October 17, 2012 2:59 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Cc: Steve Greer; [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: Some initial results from [REDACTED] re: skeleton

Steve,

Do I have permission to inquire and utilize the El Paso Scientist? I would like to make a plastic mold off of the CAT scan.

[REDACTED]

On Oct 17, 2012, at 2:52 PM, [REDACTED] <[REDACTED]> wrote:

> [REDACTED] just called. He met with [REDACTED], the foremost pediatric radiology specialist in skeletal dysplasia, for 50 minutes on Monday.

>

> Garry was given permission to record the conversation on his cellphone, but not videotape. He will have the discussion transcribed for us.

>

> Points:

>> L[REDACTED] very impressed - said basically this follows no known syndrome of skeletal dysplasia.

>> Most surprised by finding of only 9 ribs (that is all he could count). Has never seen 9 rib dysplasia.

>> Second most surprising finding to him was jaw angle of mandible.

>> By bone density, this skeleton was at least one year post-natal; other findings make it appear a fetus - but not bone density (consistent with Dr. Manchon's comment).

>> Dr. Lachmann will put his findings in writing if [REDACTED] can get a program which builds a 3D model - apparently the one on CAT scan we have is like a "plastic rendering". [REDACTED] is in process of finding and getting such a program.

>> At one point Lachmann said, "If you didn't know, you would think it was an alien..."

>

> Garry will continue to meet with others to get findings analyzed - I reminded him that any results we had confirmed by Nov. 7 would allow us to document for film on Nov. 8 meeting. He understands and will do what he can.

>

>