Dear Steven,

Thank you for your letter dated December 5 (which only arrived here last week!) and for sending me a copy of your book, which I shall read with great interest.

I was interested to hear about progress with the Witness Archive Project, and am pleased that things seem to be going well. I'm sure that the two Executive Briefing Summaries will be very impressive, and I hope that they generate interest at the various briefings that you're planning.

I don't think there's anyone else within Government or the military that I can suggest as a potential witness. Very few people are involved in this subject in an official capacity in the United Kingdom, and none of these people - so far as I am aware - are currently prepared to speak out on these issues, even using a pseudonym.

I'm not able to send you copies of any documents concerning my service, as I'm still employed by the Ministry of Defence. Under the terms of the Official Secrets Act such internal documents may not be passed to anyone other than an authorised recipient.

I hope all is well with you and your family. Please pass my best wishes to everyone involved with The Disclosure Project.

Yours sincerely,

Emily, he is not on email, if you can believe it. But his fax number is [REDACTED]. I would suggest that.
