Business Bulletin
No. 37A
May 14, 1953

MEMO TO: All WROC Personnel

FROM: Security Officer

SUBJECT: Security Regulations Governing Handling of Internal Memoranda within WROC Installation.

(This Memorandum supersedes those sections of Business Bulletin No. 37 concerning the transmission of internal memoranda classified Confidential and Lower.)

1. All internal memoranda published after May 15, 1953 having no copy number assigned may be handled in the following manner:

a. Transmission

- (1) CONFIDENTIAL, RESTRICTED and UNCLASSIFIED INTERNAL memoranda only, may be transmitted without document receipt Form No. 5223.
- (2) SECRET Documents must be accompanied by internal document receipt Form No. 5223.

b. Destruction of Internal Memoranda, CONFIDENTIAL and Lower, having no copy number assigned, may be destroyed by tearing and depositing in waste receptacle within the Restricted Area. No destruction record is necessary.

2. SECRET Documents and internal CONFIDENTIAL memoranda with assigned copy numbers will be handled as follows:

List material for destruction on Internal Document Receipt Form No. 5223 and forward to Publications Branch, where documents will be recorded and destroyed in accordance with Air Force Security Regulation 205-1.

3. This bulletin is not to be construed as any change in procedure for the Transmittal and Destruction of external classified documents regardless of Classification published by WROC or outside organizations. These will continue to be governed by existing regulations.
