BUSH SAYS HE WILL TELL THE TRUTH ABOUT UFOs IF ELECTED

By Peter Robbins

For Campaign Watch 2000

A breakthrough has occurred in the presidential front-runner's silence on the UFOs. In an online news conference transcript posted by CNN correspondent Jonathan Karl, Bush replied, "Sure I will," when a citizen questioner asked if he would tell the public "what the hell is going on" with UFOs. Bush indicated that vice-presidential candidate Dick Cheney would use his experience as Secretary of Defense to address the issue. One of the Internet links to this story as already been broken, but as of this writing, a remaining link is still online.

Watch 2000 has written repeatedly to all declared presidential candidates to learn how they would deal with the official, excessive secrecy, which has surrounded the subject of UFOs for more than fifty years now.

So far, only two have detailed their position on the issue. Early on, a spokesman for Libertarian Party candidate Harry Browne let us know in no uncertain terms that if elected, Mr. Browne would release whatever information the government has on this enigma. Dark horse Democratic Party candidate Dr. Heather Anne Harder told us by phone that she would do the same and had already included a plank in her platform to that effect. Bill Bradley's Issues Director thanked us for our survey and (or) questionnaire (we sent neither), but regretted that they were too busy to complete the one we'd sent them.

As for the two front runners, Mr. Gore has been the only one to respond to any of our half a dozen letters, though given the non-content of his brief email, he needn't have bothered. The note read, "Thanks for taking the time to e-mail a question to my Interactive Town Hall. Your participation means a great deal to me, and I will be personally responding to questions like yours on a regular basis. Please visit the site again soon. Best, Al Gore"

The Bush camp have met all of our queries with silence, but as of yesterday that silence was broken during an exchange with CNN correspondent Jonathan Karl and an unidentified individual attending the press briefing. We are indebted to Randy Kitchur for his notes on this breaking story which we reproduce here:

>Subject: G.W.Bush's UFO Statement on CNN (Confirmation)

>Date: Mon, 31 Jul 2000 22:05:30 GMT

>Gentlemen,

> For what its worth, confirmation of George W. Bush's UFO statement > can be taken directly from the CNN Transcripts page for July 29,

> 2000. The direct link is <http://www.cnn.com/TRANSCRIPTS/0007/29/smn.01.html> > > and the news item is entitled ""Bush-Cheney Take Campaign on the Road; Gore Takes > a Vacation."

> Oddly, or perhaps not, none of the news item links under "Morning > News" for this date return anything other than "The page cannot be found" > at the moment. Fortunately, there is an earlier working link (perhaps > forgotten about) under the "Saturday Morning News." In the event that > this link later turns out to not be "found" as well, the pertinent > section of the transcript reads as follows:

 >JONATHAN KARL, CNN CORRESPONDENT: Cheney played low key loyalist. >Along the way, someone thought Cheney's impressive resume would help Bush tell >the truth about UFOs.
 >UNIDENTIFIED CITIZEN: Half the public believes that they are real. Would >you finally tell us what the hell is going on?
 >GOV. GEORGE W. BUSH,(R-TX), PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE: Sure, I will. >This man knows. He was Secretary of Defense and was a great one.
 >KARL: And low key or not, Cheney drew an enthusiastic response from the >Republican faithful.
 >(on camera): Cheney's first campaign foray outside his home state was a >brieF one. He doesn't have another campaign speech scheduled until >Wednesday, when he addresses the Republican National Convention.
 >Jonathan Karl, CNN Joplin, Missouri.
 >(END VIDEOTAPE)
 >LEON HARRIS, CNN CORRESPONDENT: Cheney's no dummy. He was smooth >enough to stay away from the UFO question, obviously. Jonathan Karl is on the >road with the candidates. He joins us now by telephone from Joplin, >Missouri . . .
 > Aside from the asinine editorializing by Leon Harris, and the > apparently on-camera purposeful avoidance of the question by VP candidate > Cheney, we should all acknowledge the integrity displayed by CNN > Correspondent Jonathan Karl, and the unidentified questioner, for at > least TRYING to get the message out directly to the people.

Despite the UFO-stonewalling which Campaign Watch 2000 has been subjected to by the Bush people, the cat is now out of the bag. What can you, or any of us do to strengthen the chances of this campaign promise becoming a reality if he is elected? The answer to that is simple: CONTACT HIM AND LET HIM KNOW HOW YOU FEEL ABOUT IT. As the Republican Party's Nominating Convention moves into its second day in Philadelphia, write, call or email Governor Bush and tell him that this issue is important to you and that you expect this promise to be fulfilled if he becomes President. Much to our surprise, he has taken the first step, and it's now up to us to take the second step.

Political moments like this are few and far between, and for those of us who take the subject at hand seriously, such an opportunity may not come again during this campaign. We at Campaign Watch 2000 will of course follow up on this break with revised letters to the candidates, making note in our letter to Vice President Gore that Governor Bush has now made a verbal commitment to getting to the truth about UFOs and ask Mr. Gore (and the others) to do the same. We cannot however do this alone. Let's make sure that Governor Bush has plenty of mail supporting his statement waiting for him when he gets home, as well as during the convention. Let us make sure that both of our leading presidential candidates know that more voters than they ever imagined are paying attention to this issue and will hold Governor Bush to his word if elected.

Remember, bad things happen when good people do nothing. Join us today and ask your friends to do the same. Together, we CAN make a difference, but only if you are willing to make a call, write a letter or send an email. Here's how to contact the candidates:

George W. Bush - email: [REDACTED]

Mailing address: [REDACTED]

Al Gore - email: [REDACTED]

Mailing address: Vice President Al Gore, [REDACTED]
