This makes a staggering total of 161 credible events.

If you get a chance, read some of the descriptions at <http://www.cseti.org/crashes/crash.htm>

Even if only 10% are true (I actually am quite comfortable with 75%), what a treasure trove of technology for MJ-12!!

This is the BIG secret that they are desperate to protect IMHO. The heart and soulless soul of the military-industrial combine.

It wasn't just Roswell and one or two others. ET artifacts have been hoarded by the ruling class over the centuries, or so the records show, and as it appears that the Nazis also possessed crashed artifacts, this may have provided impetus for WW2, knowing that they had a technological road map of sorts for weaponry.

And then the obscene scramble for Nazi scientists at the end of WW2 between the allies and USSR probably included some ET booty as well - Operation
Paperclip et al.
