Mr. Steven M. Greer, M.D.
International Director
CSETI

Dear Mr. Greer,

Your proposal promises a lot, but frankly, given the amount of hyperbole in our incoming mail, it could also be an off-the-wall waste of our time.

I suggest a phone conversation between you and my partner in Illusion, Danny Halsted, and if that works, perhaps you can send some material to him.

At that point, if all seems genuine, we could meet.

Sincerely yours,

Oliver Stone
