And the Sky's the Limit on Area UFO Reports

By L. DAVID HARRIS
Evening News Staff Writer

Harrisburg — State Capital invention capital — UFO capi-

Well, at least a UFO capital a temporary basis. Last night me 20 cars filled with sky-gas — some serious, some scof-s — lined Hanover St. and led over into a field behind Manor Apartments, where Os have been sighted for the week.

quipped with cameras, biulars and a geiger counter or many were hopeful they ld see a flying saucer — or ething. As of yesterday than 200 separate UFO ings had been reported hroughout the city, its suburbs surrounding communities ng the last fortnight.

LE STAY here all night if I to," reported one car occu-
"I don't see one tonight,

"I'll try again tomorrow." As of midnight he was still waiting.

MEANWHILE, over in New Cumberland at midnight there was a sighting by two 11-year-old boys, John Thomas and Breck Peterson, both of New Cumberland MR, observed a red saucer-shaped aerial object, approximately 100 feet in diameter, with blinking red and blue lights on its bottom; hover over the New Cumberland Army Depot for about 20 minutes.

Thomas said it was observed through a telescope, which enabled them to see some details. The large red object was joined by a smaller one after about fifteen minutes. As the smaller one came near, Thomas said there was a flash and the smaller one descended.

Almost immediately after that, Thomas said it appeared as if a hatch opened at the bottom of the large UFO and a smaller one emerged from it, flying downward in the direction of the other, small object that had disappeared minutes before.

Eventually, the large object disappeared from sight also.

A spokesman for the U.S.
Weather Bureau Office said the bureau released a weather balloon last night a little after midnight. He said it was possible the balloon could have been seen in New Cumberland and one of the bureau's balloons was red.
He added that between midnight and 2 a.m. the bureau had received many calls reporting UFOs, but that bureau personnel had seen none.

"I don't know why so many sightings are here," said George Cook, of Camp Hill, "but you have to keep in mind this sort of thing is going on all over the U.S."

Maybe so, but at least for the present Harrisburg is the center of UFO talk. Cook, local chairman of the subcommittee of the National Investigations Committee on Aerial Phenomena, of Washington, has been visited by book and magazine publishers and a television crew from New York making a documentary on flying saucers.

YESTERDAY, he received calls from the University of Arizona and a Miami radio station.
Over the weekend, he was host to a team of five physicists and engineers from a space research center in Philadelphia, which had come here to survey the UFO sighting areas and interview those who had seen them.

Just what are they seeing?
First, there is the phenomena which is seen almost every night by someone at the Hall Manor Apartments in South Harrisburg. So far, two mysterious aerial objects have been seen.

The first is a bullet-like craft with bright, flashing white lights —"three times as bright as a car light," as one resident described it. On its ends, and occasionally on its top, lights of various colors have been seen.

SECOND, there is a red ball — about twice the size of a basketball. Sometimes it comes close to the earth, other times it remains higher in the air. When near the earth, it occasionally goes in dancing or zig-zag patterns.

Cook and other NICAP subcommittee members first visited the sighting area week ago, when they were called there by one of the more than 100 residents who reported seeing both objects.
They were reported seen in the field and wooded area near the apartments.

Cook said the NICAP team searched the area from midnight until 2 a.m. with searchlights and spotlights, going through the area by foot, where cars could not travel, but they found nothing.

FRIDAY, Cook returned and conducted a daylight search.
Local residents led him to an area at the edge of a field, adjacent to the woods and accessible only by foot.

Cook said he found a spot, 16 by 5 feet, where the tall grass and weeds had been uniformly flattened, as if something had landed, making depressions. In the middle of the area, he found three holes, which, then connected by lines, formed an iso-celes triangle, one hole being exactly 12 feet 4 inches from the other two.

Using a geiger counter, he measured the area for radio-activity, and said he picked up "surprising and significant" readings at the holes themselves. However, later in the evening, when additional readings were taken, there was no indication of radioactivity being present.

THE SAME evening, a report-that vicinity.

TUESDAY: JUNE 20, 1967 [REDACTED]

Summerdale, Pa.: "I first saw the U. F. O. the week of June 12 over our residence at [REDACTED] The object was approximately 20 feet from the ground, oblong in shape, I would say the shape of an egg, 16 feet long and 5 feet across. It hovered over our house for 12 to 15 min. then moved slowly toward Harrisburg, east from here. It disappeared. It came back for three nights over our residence around 10:15 to 10:30. The lights on it were a piercing bright light and on each end a red light. On Tuesday, June 20, I came east on Valley Road and saw it over Louis Park. I stopped the car and watched it for 10 minutes. I drove home and drove back to Louis Park at 10:45 P. M. to pick up my son. I again saw it over the farm house at the Eshlinger Farm at the corner of Valley Road and North Enola Drive. I had my son in the car and we stopped at the end of North Enola Drive. He went over to [REDACTED] residence and [REDACTED] and her sister and husband came out and we all watched it move over to the WHP Radio station towers on Tower Road. It hovered there between the two end towers for at least 15 minutes. I got in my car with my son and drove out Valley Road to Tower Road with no lights on. It was a beautiful warm clear night and no wind or air moving at all. I stopped at the edge of the road and watched for about 15 minutes - through the colored glass of my windshield. I could not state how far it was from the ground. It was between the towers and down between the top lights. I had no lights on my car. A car came down the Tower Road toward where I was parked. When the car got almost to the spot where it was, it started to raise slowly and continued to raise slowly to the northwest. My son and I watched until it got to the top of the mountain and it again stopped near the T. V. Towers on the top of the mountain. I then turned on my headlights and came home. When I got out of my car in the driveway and walked up on the porch it was still at the T.V. Towers. You can see these towers very clearly from my house day or night. The lights on it I would say are a reflector type light from what I observed. The lights imbedded in the ledge and a reflector over the outside. It gives the impression they are blinking but they are reflecting. My picture of what I saw is below, the red lights on both ends, resembling a tail light on a car. The lights were around the edge on both sides, so it completely is surrounded by lights. It moves in a revolving fashion and does not ever seem to stop moving even when it appears motionless.

TUESDAY: JUNE 20, 1967 11:45 P. M. Three and a half miles south of Carlisle.

XXXXXX reports seeing a brilliant white blinking light over house going north to south then banked sharply and went behind tree line. When banking over, round red glow appeared as if this were the bottom of the object. Moments later, brilliant white blinking lights appeared directly east and at considerable distance - estimated at 7 to 10 miles (unless object was smaller than I think). Blinking light then appeared to change position in a sequence of moves and at a speed to incredibly fast to comprehend. ^{PAINTING & SKETCH ENCLOSED} This flashing, blinking light then moved slowly after being stationary for approx. 5 minutes, south to north for a short time. It then turned west and came toward my house, still at considerable distance, and gaining altitude. All the while the light was moving, it continued changing positions at this fantastic speed.¹ As it grew closer, a red glow was apparent in the center of this movement.² The moves were so fast that the illusion of light being traced in the pattern was evident. The object continued on a westerly course and leveled off at considerable height (perhaps as much as 9000 ft.³).⁴ When over Carlisle proper, the flashing stopped,⁵ and a constant red glow was apparent as the object continued west and out of sight.⁶ At 11:52 P. M. another larger object appeared from the east, rising from below the tree line and following the same flight plan as the first object.⁷ The same speed of flashing white lights occurred - and at times appeared as if these white lights were moving away from a central red glow and then back again at the same terrific speed.⁸ The second object,⁹ as the first, stopped flashing when over Carlisle, except for a brilliant white light above and in front of 4 red glowing tubes. (Painting and sketch enclosed).¹⁰ The second object went due west until out of sight.¹¹ These sightings were made with 7 X 35 binoculars,¹² sky quite and bright. A friend using 10 X 50 binoculars observed these same objects with me.¹³ They both crossed approximately 45 degrees above the horizon at their maximum height,¹⁴ and the size is hard to estimate.¹⁵ If each is one object having a series of lights attached,¹⁶ and yawing, and fluttering,¹⁷ then the size of the second object would be classed as huge.¹⁸ It appeared as if each light was one object changing positions at this great speed.¹⁹ We also had noticed that directly east from my house, there appeared to be a great glow and bright light visible through the trees.²⁰ After the second object was gone, the light was gone from the tree line.²¹ I have since checked the area, and talked with one of the farmers, who tells me that no one there has any light except one red light. (Which is quite dim and insignificant in comparison to the brightness we had previously seen.)
