>Dear Steven Greer,

> I would be happy to share proof of contact with alien intelligence >with you, if you are interested.
> Since my friends and colleagues who have success in >the endeavor of contacting alien life also are interested in >having this information disclosed, they might possibly be available >as witnesses, as well.
> In any event, as a member of CSETI, I would seriously like >to receive something better than the poorly typed and badly proofread >documents which CSETI sent me for the $200+ that I paid to join.
> As I previously have written, my family was friendly >with the CIA Director who was the Secretary of Defense after Forrestal >committed suicide, due to the Roswell event. (If government confirmation >is the issue, why have you not contacted me?) > By virtue of this acquaintance, I received many alien contacts at >a young age (5-18). In fact, I was used by the CIA to investigate >the UFO/alien contact phenomenon, and made reports to the ex-Director.
> My primary question for you, Dr. Greer, is: why you have taken so >long to respond to my e-mails on this topic?
> Have you ever had alien contact, actually? (Or is this an attention/>money-making venture for you?)
> One of my close friends says that you "Have an ego bigger than Texas."
> If you wish to prove her false, please show me something which incites >and excites my interest.
