Stories are flying on Clinton, Rockefeller UFO meeting

By CURTIS HUBBARD

A supermarket tabloid, the New York Daily News and Michael Luckman of the New York Center for UFO research have been busy this week trying to determine whether President Clinton and Laurence Rockefeller met in Jackson to discuss opening the government's UFO files.

No word on whether inquiring minds want to know, but the Guide does.

"I'm not familiar with the issue, but the president did see Mr. and Mrs. Rockefeller at the JY ranch about a week ago and then again when they left for the camping (Sunday)," White House spokeswoman Ginny Terzano said. "They mostly talked about (Grand Teton National) Park, horseback riding — mostly along those lines."

Terzano added that "the president has positions on most every issue, but UFO's is not one of them."

A story entitled "Prez' hunt for campaign cash may turn up some UFOs first" ran in the Thursday, Aug. 24, issue of the New York Daily News.

That article noted that Rockefeller and Clinton probably "talk(ed) about the environment" at Clinton's 49th birthday party last Saturday "since Laurance has been a conservation advisor to every president since Eisenhower."

It went on to speculate that Rockefeller, "who has been pressing the Clinton administration to open the government's UFO files," would likely try to discuss the issue with the president and that Clinton, hoping to "squeeze" money out of the 85-year-old Jackson Hole resident, would listen.

Rockefeller spokesman Frasier Sietel did not return the Guide's phone calls.

Rick Borchelt, White House special assistant for public affairs, did. "We routinely decline the interview on that topic as you might imagine," he said. "I can tell you that there haven't been any lengthy discussions with Laurence Rockefeller."

We don't expect any rapid action here," he added.

Speculation on the government's UFO files, especially those pertaining to the 1947 "Roswell incident," has many UFO buffs pressing for the public release of those documents. Roswell, N.M., is the site of a controversial UFO landing.

Among them, is a self-proclaimed "UFO skeptic," New Mexico Congressman Steve Schiff, R-N.M.

On July 28 of this year, Congressman Schiff released the General Accounting Office (GAO) report detailing results of a records audit related to events surrounding the "Roswell Incident" and the military response.

In that statement, Schiff said important documents, which may shed more light on what happened at Roswell, were missing.

"The GAO report states that the outgoing messages from Roswell Army Air Field for this period of time were destroyed without proper authority."

Schiff pointed out that those messages would have shown how military officials in Roswell were explaining to their superiors exactly what happened.

A large volume of media inquiries involving the films "Alien Autopsy" and the "Roswell Incident" to Schiff's office on Tuesday prompted him to release another statement.

"As vice-chairman of the House Government Reform and Oversight Committee ... my interest remains one of government openness and accountability ... I remain committed to open, honest and accountable government. In this regard, I will continue to pursue the truth ..."

Dear Steve:

As an encouraging news, see alien's autopsy
As encouraging to all of us, the alien's
