SUBJECT: Duty and Travel Restriction

TO: [REDACTED] SGT. AF12714182
[REDACTED]

1. You are reminded that your duty and travel are restricted under paragraph 1a, AFR 30-24, "Duty and Travel Restrictions," Code B. They will continue until 15 October 1969.
2. Your gaining organization is being advised of this duty and travel restriction; however, you are also personally required to notify your new office chief or supervisor of these restrictions.
3. Prior to engaging in any activity that would take you into, through, or over a foreign country shown on the consolidated listing in the classified supplement to the USAF Foreign Clearance Guide, obtain a release in accordance with Section C, AFR 30-24. Your written request for release should be addressed to: Hq USAF (AFNIN), Wash., D.C. 20330, through appropriate channels.
4. Requests should be forwarded to reach the above office no later than 30 days prior to the date travel is expected to begin. As a minimum your requests should include;
 - a. Your complete identity including AFSN and Social Security Account Number (SSAN).
 - b. Proposed itinerary: Places to be visited, dates and mode of travel.
 - c. An unclassified summary of the reason the duty and travel restriction was imposed.
 - d. Reason for requesting waiver - whether to visit, reside, or engage in a business enterprise. If reason for request is in connection with employment, provide a summary of duties to be performed.
 - e. Identity of accompanying personnel.

5. (For Military Personnel) If you should reenter any military service while this restriction is still in force, you must immediately notify your personnel officer of these restrictions so that your records may be annotated accordingly.

6. (For Civilian Employees) If you should reenter Federal employment prior to the expiration date shown in paragraph 1, you will immediately notify your supervisor of these restrictions so that your records may be annotated accordingly.

1. You are hereby advised that your duty and travel are restricted in accordance with the provisions of AFR 30-24, 6 July 1965, "Duty and Travel Restrictions."

2. You are requested to acquaint yourself with the USAF Foreign Clearance Guide limitations that have been imposed in the interest of national security. During a period of TDY or PCS foreign travel, it will be your responsibility to advise the transportation officer of this restriction. When such notification is given, transportation officers are authorized by AFM 75-4 to provide circuitous routing if necessary to reach your destination without violating provisions of the USAF Foreign Clearance Guide.

3. If you are transferred, you are required to advise your new commander or chief of office of these restrictions as soon as practicable. (para 5a, AFR 30-24)

4. A copy of this letter is being forwarded to the office having custody of your personnel records where a notation will be made on appropriate records as prescribed in paragraph 3(b), AFR 30-24.

5. For custodian of personnel records: Request this office be advised by initial indorsement hereon, as to the date the information on attached AF Form 1098 was entered on individual's records.
