Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter of July 28. It was most kind of you to go to so much trouble to provide us the needed information. I have taken the liberty of sending a copy of the letter to [REDACTED] who you will recall, has been in contact with a man named [REDACTED] who claims to have been a member of your crew at the time of the sighting. (When [REDACTED] reviewed the Air Force records on your case, he found no reference to Bridge, and if I remember correctly, the name did not ring a bell with you.) There may be no way to determine for sure if Bridge was on the flight in question; in any event, we will continue to attempt to locate some of the other witnesses.

Per your request, we will not use your name in any article we might publish on your sighting. I hope to use some of the material you sent in our newsletter, as I indicated to you before, but I am not certain as to how much or when. I will, of course, send you copies of anything we publish.

The name of Major Keyhoe's book is FLYING SAUCERS, TOP SECRET. I doubt that you will be able to buy a copy, because the book is out of print and there are few copies available through second hand book stores. If I can locate an extra copy, I will send it to you.

Again, our appreciation for your interest and help. I will be in touch if anything further develops in connection with your sighting.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
