Here's the email (further down below) with the info about when the guy in Santa Fe ([REDACTED]) who wanted some Disclosure Books for [REDACTED] it was in July 2003.

I sent them to him and he told me on Oct. 17th that he delivered them to [REDACTED] Chief of Staff, and then on Oct. 28th he forwarded an email from Richardson's Executive Assistant saying:

Hi Steve and Emily,

FYI...

Tuesday, April 13, 2004 CompuServe: DrSGreer

Have you heard of Helen Caldicott of the Nuclear Policy Research Institute?

The Nuclear Policy Research Institute web site doesn't mention a November conference in DC, but I subscribed to their email list for updates just in case.

Is it ok if I send this guy (John Lamenzo) 2 Disclosure books to get to Bill Richardson, if he has good enough access to him? Or do you want to write an official cover letter that should go with them?

Thanks,

Debbie

Why do you think she reacted so scared when I mentioned Stephen's name and the 'Disclosure Project'. I have my own thesis, but I would be interested in yours.

I am living in Santa Fe, NM now and could get a couple of copies of 'The Disclosure Project' to Gov. Bill Richardson if you haven't done so yet. Send them to me asap if you want.

Regards,
