

Art Bell

To: (unknown), [REDACTED]
From: INTERNET: [REDACTED]
Date: 10/14/98, 11:39 PM
Re: [CAUS updates] - Art Bell Update

Dear CAUS Subscribers:

CAUS thanks [REDACTED] for this analysis:

"Don't worry about Arthur William Bell, and family, they are okay. Ramona was shopping at the Lucky supermarket in Pahrump on Tuesday afternoon. Art's fenced place is locked up and his regular phones are disconnected. The TV crews from Las Vegas have been outside his place but are getting no response."

"Art's Sunday show called, "Dreamland", was a spin-off of his "After Dark" show which was sponsored by the Bigelow Foundation. Bob Bigelow is a Las Vegas multimillionaire who is head of the NIDS research group, now with many Ph.D.'s, as consultants, included Jacques Vallee. I am assuming, just opinion, that Art is still friendly with Bob Bigelow."

"Here is a snip from a Las Vegas newspaper:

<<one of the most popular talk radio shows in America. A measure of that popularity came in April when his and 17 other radio shows were sold by Chancellor Broadcasting Co. for $10 million to Jacor Communications Inc. Jacor, which also controls the shows of Rush Limbaugh and Dr. Laura Schlessinger, is the third largest radio operator in the country. But just last week, Clear Channel Communications Inc. announced it was taking over Jacor in a $3.4 billion stock deal to create a 450-station powerhouse.>>"

"In my opinion, the takeover of his network affiliation, after a similar takeover not long ago, is the reason for his childish tantrum, and not any "safety of family" issue. Besides Art's radio listeners, his webpage gets millions of hits, and Art Bell chat clubs are found in many major cities. His success with two books, "The Art of Talk", and "The Quickening", has added to his many fans."

"I think Art will sit tight until all the red carpets are at his door, and when given what he considers worthy of his talent, he will return to the airwaves with believable excuses. This guy can't resist a microphone."

He was a 911 dispatcher on the Monterey penninsula, was a DJ on "Christain" radio, a DJ on a Country Western station, and has been a ham radio operator since he was a child. He shall return !!!"

Hope everyone has a revealing Thursday and of CAUS...watch the skies!

[REDACTED]

Director

Be sure to visit the CAUS web site at [REDACTED]

To join this mailing list, go to [REDACTED]

To be REMOVED from this mailing list, go to... [REDACTED]

Served by [REDACTED]