

Retrieval Witness

Saturday March 26, 2022

Upon Dr. Greer's request this witness called him.
These are rough notes from the conversation.

They are the witness's recollection of his experiences from 2002 – 2004.
He enlisted in the Army.

The witness said that when he had filled out initial enlistment documents the 1st day he reported for duty he was pulled aside by a liason officer. He was asked to agree to a new assignment not knowing what it was, but only that he would be paid a lot and would be traveling.

The liason officer pulled up Witness's bank account on the officer's lap top and offered him $80,000 to sign up.

Witness later called the bank and verified that $80,000 had been put in the account.

On Day 3 when he was supposed to go to tanker school from Ft. Knox they said instead he would be transferred to a different program.

He and 4 other guys were put in a white airplane with the windows blacked out.

They had basic training at a new unknown place. Biometric data was taken from them:
Retina scans, handprints. They were given large white badges with the letter Q on them with his name and a bar code. {RDIF was on the badge?}

He assumes they were at an Air Force base. At one point they got on a plane and were taken for 2 more weeks of basic training. They were told, "Don't ask questions."

During class time during this basic training they were told they would be part of a crash retrieval team for planes that had failed.

They needed to be sure to get up all the pieces.
They would be working with helicopters and special forces.

They had a training notebook that on the front with an insert sheet said "Joint Operations Task Force – NRO"

Inside it explained the rules for the teams.

His job was to follow the guy with the metal detector and pick up the very small debris.

It was taken up by Sea cans and then put into helicopters.
They timed them to get faster and faster and more efficient in the pick up.

The 1st year seemed normal.
Finally figured out he was at Dover, then Nellis, then Vandenburg, then back to Nellis.
They were still practicing.

There were 4 teams:
2 – 4 helicopters
2- 4 Special Ops guys with guns
Others – rigging, HAZMAT suits
Picking up small pieces.

2nd year things got “weird”.
“Talked about secret aircraft we have”

They had a short briefing then told “We’ve got a downed ‘bird’. You have to scoop up things very quickly.” (Probably early 2004)

What he saw was a truncated diamond in the desert – still on the Nellis range.
It was sitting on the desert floor.
They took nylon webbing and then a canvas tarp on top of the craft and hauled it back to the airport.
It had about a 25’ wing span. White on top. Black on the bottom. Had a cockpit of reflected gold. Very clearly riveted together.
(When asked by Greer, the Witness said he could draw it.)

The 2nd weird event. (Probably end of March/ early April 2004)
They got scrambled and flew north.
The Delta guys were with them.
They were near a big lake.
They flew for quite a while.
There were bits of metal in the trees. The ‘bird’ was in the water.
There was a Coast Guard ship there.
They were picking up aluminum out of the trees- ribbons of it.
They threw it into Sea cans and got into the helicopters.
They flew S/SW for about 45 minutes.

They landed in the middle of a soy bean field.
He heard a huge rumbling. Part of the field dropped down like an elevator- about .1 mile.

They flew into it on the helicopter. Dropped off the Sea cans and then the helicopter flew out.

They were not supposed to discuss any of this with anyone or with each other.

Next is last event he was on. {probably May 2004}

They got scrambled.

Were told it was a HAZMAT situation.

They were on the Nellis range, flew N about 15 minutes.

The Delta guys got out 1st to secure the area.

There was a craft the shape of a sunflower seed on the ground with little landing lights above it.

It was dusk.

Hovering above it was a diamond shape craft that had lights on it.

It got very quiet.

You couldn't hear the rotors of the helicopters.

From the back side of the craft a metallic ramp came out.

3 'people' came out- about 5 ft tall. Looked human but smaller. Humanish proportions. They came down the ramp, spread out. One looked up.

The metallic ship on the ground took on a red glow from inside itself.

The craft above (might have been an ARV) took off at a high rate of speed. No sonic boom. The only noise was a hum.

The Delta guys one by one slumped over.

3 "people" from the craft walked around. The Delta guys slumped over. Witness was scared and peed on himself.

The creatures were about 5 ft. tall, bald, human features, big eyes but not huge, no ears.

The Witness heard a message from them – "Stop" "Stop, calm down, relax. We are not here to hurt you." Witness said it was an emotion, a thought impression all at one time. He felt very calm but could not move quickly.

They said: "We are going to leave. You can't stop us. You need to stop doing this."

Witness decided he could not do this any more.

He noticed they had human like features. All smaller than ours, but eyes bigger. Opalescent jumpsuits.

Then it went black.

When he woke up he was back at the airfield and still had a bucket and shovel in his hand.

Within in 30 seconds humvees arrived.

They stripped them naked. Put them in separate rooms to get debriefed.

He was asked very angrily, "Why didn't you accomplish your mission".

(His Dad was a Marine).

Witness said that he refused to do this again.

They threatened him and his family.

Something to the effect of: We will make sure your record never existed. We will take your bank accounts.

Witness said, "So what! Do it!"

He talked to his Uncle who was a "master chief" [?] in the Navy.

Witness said, "Uncle, 'I'm 'in the way'. I know you have clearance. Can you help me get out of this?"

Uncle said, "Hang tight. I'll get you out in 2 days"

He was not allowed to sleep. No food. No water.

Witness kept saying "These people {meaning ETs} are no threat."

2 days later he was still in the debriefing room.

Uncle came with 10 Marines and got him out.

They got into black SUVs and went to an unmarked gate that opened.

Through 2006 – 2008, Witness would get threatening calls. They tried to kill him but missed on purpose to intimidate. (probably late June/early July 2006). They tried to abduct him with a fake "alien". He was driving around to go fishing. He saw a truncated diamond craft sitting there. He was paralyzed and could not move. 3 "greys" came by his truck. He was thinking "I know what you are. I know what this is! Get out of here!" About 30 minutes later he was down the road. The triangle was about 100 ft. in the air. The "greys" walked in a very jerky manner, in unison. They were about 3 ½ ft. tall. 30 minutes of lost time.
