Steve, Just got this from someone at the office. I spoke with someone at the house earlier today who said he is not doing well at all. That's all I know. He was sleeping so I could not speak with him.

Ted,
Steve's children visited with him this weekend and were very concerned about their dad. They do not want him to be worrying about anything but getting well. We do not want him to be bothered or upset by any further requests or discussions regarding the project. Please advise [redacted] and Steve Greer and we hope they respect the family's wishes.
