

FROM: "A.J. Craddock", INTERNET: [REDACTED]

DATE: 12/29/96 2:40 PM

Re: Article on [REDACTED], 'the flying saucer guy'

Received: from

To: "Steven M. Greer M.D." <[REDACTED]>
From: "[REDACTED]" <[REDACTED]>
Subject: Article on [REDACTED], 'the flying saucer guy'
Mime-Version: 1.0
Content-Type: text/plain; charset="us-ascii"

>>
>>[What follows is an article from page 28 of the August 1996 issue
of >>George.]
>>
>>BEAM ME UP, [REDACTED]
>>
>>UFO's may be a passion for [REDACTED], the eccentric >>philanthropist, but in an election year the issue has politicians >>reaching for ten-foot poles. That, at least, has been the reaction to a >>Rockefeller-sponsored report entitled Unidentified Flying Objects
>>Briefing Document: The Best Available Evidence.
>>
>> Starting in 1944 with Allied pilot reports of "Foo Fighters"--strange >>lights originally believed to be secret Japanese rockets=97the briefing
>>runs through 22, reasonable sounding case studies, touching on the >>infamous Roswell incident of 1947, in which the U.S. government is >>alleged to have recovered an alien craft that crashed in the New Mexico
>>desert with extraterrestrial on board. It ends with sightings in >>Michigan two years ago. The report concludes emphatically that UFOs are >>for real and that the governments of the world know more than they are >>telling us.
>>
>> If Rockefeller were trying to sell this report, he could not have >>picked a better time. With two big-budget space-alien movies >>Independence Day and The Arrival, hitting screens this summer, the >>public seems to be in an extraterrestrial mood. But the report is not >>for the general consumption. Only 1,000 copies were published and >>distributed to "influential people in government, industry and science, >>including a lot of people on Capitol Hill," according to Don Berliner, >>the author, who refuses to identify any recipients. "If these people >>are going to work towards this, they will do it behind the scenes," he >>says. "If you were running for reelection, would you like to be >>identified as 'the flying saucer guy'?"

< 2 2

>>
>> Probably not. But at least one member of Congress admits to receiving >>a copy of the report: Representative Steve Schiff, a Republican from >>New Mexico, who sits on the House science committee. Schiff has gone >>to bat for UFO believers in the past. It was due to his insistence that >>the General Accounting Office first inquired into the missing Roswell >>files, some of which were eventually released (though they contained >>nothing about aliens). But Schiff has stopped talking to the press >>about UFO-related subjects, and claims his original interest had to do >>solely with the illegality of keeping the files classified.
>>
>> But it may be time for Schiff and his colleagues to change their tune.
>>According to a report released this spring by the Congressional >>Quarterly Researcher, "50 percent of Americans think flying saucers are >>real, and that the government is hiding the truth about them."
Being
>>the flying saucer guy may not be such a bad thing after all.
>>--
>>
>>=====

=====
===
>>
>>Take this brother, and may it serve you well...
>><http://www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,1067>
>>This is my opinion.
>>This is my reality.
>>
>>
>>
>>