Greetings, [REDACTED]

Here is the first of three e-mails dealing with the matters we discussed over the phone about 2 hours ago. I could find no other mention of [REDACTED] and Mr. Cheney's scheduled 20 minute meeting tomorrow in Washington, D.C., to discuss the proposed missile shield on the net, in order to confirm it for you with an Internet link. I saw it today in our local newspaper, the Winnipeg Free Press. It will likely be a national news item tomorrow, so I will find and send you a link or links them.

Here is a link to [REDACTED] first-hand experience of [REDACTED] intuitive/remote viewing abilities: <http://www.sgtstone.com>. A friend of his, Mr. [REDACTED] has also seen first-hand evidence of this, in addition to my own first-hand experience of [REDACTED] success in doing the same with my own UFO close encounter and subsequent MIB experience in 1981, which he performed with 100% perfect accuracy, while speaking to [REDACTED] over the phone. I have never spoken or communicated with [REDACTED] lives over one-thousand miles away from me, making it all the more astonishing for me, hence, our interest into looking into the "triple helix" DNA explanation as a plausible one. Note the reference to a "Cosmic Twin" in this e-mail by [REDACTED] which I presume is military code for a person with just such DNA.

>Hello [REDACTED] Strange stuff...I get a call from [REDACTED] friend this evening, from NJ. He tells me I need to call [REDACTED] He does not indicate anything strange but tells me I need to call him. I got to Theresa's car to warm it up and then think, I will just go check my Email.
