Steven,

I know this doesn't do much good now, but I apologize for overlooking this important stuff. I'm stunned. In retrospect I don't know how I could have missed it. But words won't help now... so I want to figure out what to do. My immediate thought is that you or I call him. He is very accomodating and he does travel a lot. He's home more than he's at his teaching job. Maybe he'll be going somewhere where one of our team and/or camera people are and we can tape him again. In any case, we need to talk to him about the best way to get this material. The advantage to you calling is that you have the material in your head from just having viewed the interview. However I will do whatever you want me to do on this.

His contact info:

I'm really sorry. Let me know if you'd like me to contact him and I'll do it immediately.
