

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : [REDACTED]
FROM : [REDACTED]
SUBJECT: Anti-Trujillo Movement

MICROFILMED

AUG 8 1964

DATE:

18 December 1952

DOC. MICRO. SER.

000113

1. I&NS informs this division that it recently interviewed Mrs. Adel REQUENA, widow of Andres F. Requena, editor of De Patria and author of Cemetery Without Crosses, who was assassinated in New York City on 2 October 1952. He was violently opposed to the present Dominican Republic government of (President Trujillo).

2. During the interview Mrs. Requena furnished the following information:

a. Up to the time of her separation from her husband (apparently shortly before his assassination), he frequently had visitors who shared his political views and beliefs;

b. One of his frequent visitors was Juan Bosch, one-time secretary to the Mayor of Havana, Cuba;

c. Another visitor was (Dr.) jur. Jose A. Bonilla-Atilles (aka: "Doctor Boneeze" - phonetic spelling); a Dominican citizen, anti-Trujillo, who had been in the US, went to Guatemala and then moved to Los Angeles, California, where he currently teaches Spanish in a school or college.

3. Our files contain no information concerning the above-named individuals.

4. It is requested that this information be handled in such a way that reference to I&NS interest is not disclosed to persons outside of CIA.

5. This information is being transmitted also to I&SO.

6. Any inquiry concerning this memorandum should be directed

A, B to [REDACTED]

INDEX

APPROVED FOR RELEASE

Date

1 DEC 1980

Approved for Release

Date

SEP 1981

(5)