Dear Steven,

Thank you for your letter dated March 13, concerning the forthcoming Disclosure Project events. I apologise for the delay in replying.

I am not sure at this stage if I will be able to attend any of the events in Washington, because of uncertainties over whether I will be able to take leave from work during the period concerned. I should know the position within the next couple of weeks. In the event that I am not able to attend, I shall send you a written statement concerning my official research and investigations into UFOs, and my belief that this is a real phenomenon that raises serious defence and national security issues.

My funds are limited too, so I would need The Disclosure Project to meet my travel and accommodation expenses; and because of pressures on my time, I would ask that one of your team make the bookings, consulting me over the details beforehand. I am sorry if this all sounds a little vague, but perhaps you or Linda (to whom I am copying this fax) could contact me in a week or so, to discuss all this.

I hope preparations for the various events are going well, and would be interested to know details of the various witnesses, VIPs and media who have already agreed to attend.

I wish you, [REDACTED] and everyone else at The Disclosure Project all the very best.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]
