

000640

31 January 1968

SUBJECT: SEYMOUR, William
(See also HALL, Loren Eugene)
(See also HOWARD, Lawrence J.)

ALLEGATION:

William SEYMOUR, together with Loren Eugene HALL and Lawrence HOWARD, visited Mrs. Sylvia ODIO, Cuban refugee, in Dallas, Texas in September 1963 seeking assistance for an anti-Castro movement. William SEYMOUR supposedly resembled OSWALD in appearance. This matter was investigated by the FBI and appears in the Warren Commission Report. However, GARRISON alleges that SEYMOUR was in Miami Beach at the time and that it was really OSWALD who was one of the trio. One of the trio whom Mrs. ODIO thought was OSWALD is alleged to have said that "President KENNEDY should have been assassinated after the Bay of Pigs".

SOURCE:

Jan 1968 RAMPARTS
article by William W. TURNER.

OS INDICES RESULTS:

Negative except for a reference to Subject in a newspaper clipping in the OS file of [REDACTED]. The clipping dated 5 December 1962 appeared in the WASHINGTON POST and reported the arrest of 13 men by U. S. Customs agents and border patrol officers on Sombbrero Key, Florida. They were charged with violating U. S. neutrality laws by "an attempt to form an expedition to invade a foreign country". Leader of the group was identified as Gerald Patrick HEDDING and William SEYMOUR, Jr., was listed as one of the group. A Lawrence J. HOWARD, Jr.,

125
F 81-0351 D0530

00530

Approved [REDACTED] Date [REDACTED]

000641

27, Pico Rivera, California, was also listed.

DETAILS:

The Warren Commission Report, p. 321-324 sets forth the testimony of Mrs. Sylvia ODIO concerning a visit paid to her apartment in Dallas, Texas on the night of 26 September 1963. Mrs. ODIO's parents were political prisoners in Cuba and her visitors attempted to secure her help in preparing a letter for soliciting funds for the anti-Castro activities of an organization known as the Cuban Revolutionary Junta (JURE). She alleged one of the men introduced himself as "Leon OSWALD". On 27 September 1963, the day after the visit, one of the men called her and said that "the American ('Leon OSWALD') had been in the Marine Corps and was an excellent shot and that the American had said the Cubans 'don't have any guts'..... because President KENNEDY should have been assassinated after the Bay of Pigs, and some Cubans should have done that, because he was the one that was holding the freedom of Cuba actually".

During the course of its investigation the Commission concluded that OSWALD could not have been in Dallas on the evening of either 26 or 27 September 1963. The FBI established that he was in New Orleans until about 1:00 PM, 25 September 1963, and that he was on a bus from Houston to Laredo, Texas on the first leg of his Mexico trip during the time Mrs. ODIO said he visited her apartment.

On 16 September 1964 the FBI located Loren Eugene HALL in Johnsandale, California. HALL was identified as a participant in numerous anti-Castro activities. He told the FBI he was in Dallas, Texas in September 1963 soliciting aid in connection with anti-Castro activities; that he visited Mrs. ODIO accompanied by Lawrence HOWARD, a Mexican-American from East Los Angeles, and one William SEYMOUR from Arizona. SEYMOUR is similar in appearance to OSWALD. The Warren Commission Report stated that while the FBI had not completed its investigation into the matter at the time the Report went to press, the Commission concluded that OSWALD was not at Mrs. ODIO's apartment in September 1963.